BACHELORS AND BACHELORETTEES ON THE AUCTION BLOCK AT LGBT RED HOT & IN STYLE, A BENEFIT FOR DELIVER THE DREAM

On Thursday, May 8, the 2nd Annual Red Hot & In Style will be an opportunity for members of the LGBT community to bid on some of South Florida's most eligible bachelors and bachelorettes, while helping families who are dealing with serious illness.

A benefit for Deliver the Dream, the event features local men and women who are bravely putting themselves on the auction block, offering an exciting first-date to the highest bidder, with fun-filled date packages included. Red Hot & In Style takes place at 8 pm at The Manor, 2345 Wilton Drive in Wilton Manors.

Fearless bachelors and bachelorettes include Alan Kurland, Bryan Wilson, Gabriel Rodriguez, Merrick Williams, Monica Baryo, Sara Barnett, Sherri Rockower and Valerie Lopez among others. Several of them are representing businesses such as The Manor, The Village Pub and SunServe.

Bidding on a bachelor or bachelorette includes an entire date package. These range from fine dining at The Palm in Bal Harbour to an outdoor kayaking adventure, private yoga lesson or a one-day rental of a Jaguar.

Whether you are looking for that special someone, or just want to mix and mingle for a cause, Red Hot & In Style promises to be a fun night out. Joe Posa, in the persona of Joan Rivers, and Malcolm Neitzey are the hosts for the evening, guaranteeing a touch of drama and lots of excitement.

Looking for a bargain? The silent auction will feature a great selection of items, including electric bike rentals, a private wine tasting for 10 of your closest BFF's, personal training sessions and much, much more.

All proceeds from the event directly fund Deliver the Dream's specialized Family Retreat Program, serving families living with HIV/AIDS, Cancer, Autism, Cerebral Palsy and other life-changing illnesses and crises. Deliver the Dream doesn't define the family unit and is proud to serve the gay and lesbian families in this community. Retreats happen every month and invite up to 15 families, free of charge, to get away from the stress of their everyday lives and connect with other families living with similar circumstances.

"We are so proud to partner with the LGBT community, as Deliver the Dream's mission has always been inclusive of all families," said Paul Withrow, executive director. "It takes a village to make our mission possible, and the generosity of our community helps us make a significant difference in the lives of countless families in crisis."

The event is made possible through the generosity of sponsors: Presenting Sponsor is Neighborhood Market by Walmart; Additional sponsors are Isle Casino Racing Pompano Park, Hot Flyers, Principal Financial Group, Alpine Jaguar, Diplomat Specialty Pharmacy, Hot Spots, Mark's List, OutClique, Pride Factory, SFGN and Stonewall Summer Pride.

Red Hot & In Style takes place on Thursday, May 8 at 8 pm at The Manor, 2345 Wilton Drive in Wilton Manors. Tickets are just $20 per person, which includes drink specials and hors d'oeuvres.
