DESCRIPTION

FROM

Dating is stressful. First, you have to find someone with whom you'd like to spend a few hours of your time. Then you have to figure out what to do with said date. If you're looking to solve your dating woes, Red Hot & in Style is auctioning off some sexy local LGBT men and women as a benefit for Deliver the Dream on Thursday night. Taking place at the Manor, the event is putting brave men and women on the auction block to offer an exciting first date to the highest bidder. Each "date" is paired with a prearranged excursion, ranging from fine dining to luxury car rentals to an outdoor kayaking adventure. Expect some entertainment to go along with the bidding -- as if bidding on a date isn't a humorous affair in itself. Malcolm Neitzey and Joe Posa (who will be in the persona of Joan Rivers) will host the event. A silent auction is also taking place with a selection of items. All proceeds directly fund the organization's Family Retreat Program, which helps families living with HIV/AIDS, cancer, autism, cerebral palsy, and other life-changing crises. The event starts at 8 p.m. The cost to attend is $20 per person. The Manor is located at 2345 Wilton Drive in Wilton Manors. Call 954-626-0082, visit themanorcomplex.com, or visit deliverthedream.org.
