Solstice Shines in "Denim and Diamonds" as a 2011 Deliver the Dream Sponsor

August 29, 2011

Solstice Benefits has committed to sponsor Deliver the Dream, a South Florida based non-profit organization dedicated to helping families touched by crisis or illness through programs and retreats, at their 8th annual "Denim and Diamonds" fundraising gala.

Fort Lauderdale, FL (August 23, 2011) - Solstice Benefits has committed to sponsor Deliver the Dream, a South Florida based non-profit organization dedicated to helping families touched by crisis or illness through programs and retreats, at their 8th annual "Denim and Diamonds" fundraising gala.

The gala, hosted this year on October 29th, is the organization's signature fund-raising event and attracts over 400 guests, representing the tri-county's top corporate and community leaders.

"At Solstice, we value family. Deliver the Dream is an organization passionate about family and creating the much-needed time for a family in crisis to recharge and regroup. We cannot think of a better way to impact our community than providing a family with access to a Deliver the Dream retreat," said Carlos Ferrera, Chief Operating Officer at Solstice Benefits.

About Deliver the Dream:

Deliver the Dream is dedicated to the mission of helping families with illness or crisis in their lives. Through each retreat, Deliver the Dream provides the opportunity to escape the overwhelming stress of a serious illness, find time to reunite, and gain support from others who are coping with similar situations. Since its inception, over 4,800 lives of those challenged by Cancer, Sickle Cell, Multiple Sclerosis, HIV, Down Syndrome, Autism or death of a loved one, have been helped by the gift of a Deliver the Dream weekend retreat.
