Deliver the Dream, a South Florida-based nonprofit that organizes retreat programs for families facing serious illness, have unveiled details of their seventh annual "Denim & Diamonds Gala." The Oct. 30 event begins at 6 p.m. at the Marriott Harbor Beach Resort and Spa. The Gala will feature a cocktail reception courtesy of Grey Goose vodka, silent auction, dinner, fund-a-dream, and tunes and dancing with music by the Bob Hoose Orchestra.

Sponsors include Washovia A Wells Fargo Company, Grey Goose vodka, 22 Squared, Moore, Ellinch & Neal CPA and Clinx Systems, Inc.

Based in Fort Lauderdale, Deliver the Dream was founded by former JM Family CEO Pat Moran. Since 2002, the organization has hosted retreats for more than 4,000 family members facing such challenges as cancer, Multiple Sclerosis, HIV, Down Syndrome and Autism. At the cost of more than $35,000 each, the four-day, three-night retreats are held annually throughout Florida, North Carolina and Georgia. Retreat participants are referred to Deliver the Dream by a network of healthcare partners, including the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, Joe Diltsagio Children's Hospital, Hospice by the Sea, the American Cancer Society, Baptist Health, and Shands Pediatric Hematology Oncology Clinic. More than 300 volunteers help make the retreats possible.

Gala tickets are $250 per person and $450 per couple. Sponsorships start at $2,500. For more information, contact Christie Galeano at 954-564-3512 or christie.galeano@delivethedream.org, or visit <http://www.delivethedream.org>.
